

EDUCATION

Harvard University, Kennedy School of Government Cambridge, MA
Master of Public Administration in International Development 2003 – 2005

University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign, IL
Bachelor of Arts, Economics; Bachelor of Science, Bioengineering 1997 – 2001

RELEVANT PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Keybridge Washington, DC
Vice President 2007 – Present

Provides strategic advising and macroeconomic analysis for clients related to energy policy, public health, and environmental issues. Manages program evaluation and independent monitoring projects primarily in the field of public health. Performs econometric and economic modeling for economic, policy, and regulatory impact analyses. Leads management team on matters related to personnel.

The World Bank, Office of the Chief Economist Washington, DC
Consultant and Junior Professional Associate 2005 – 2007

Provided research and helped manage and write the 2006 and 2007 Global Monitoring Reports to track progress on the Millennium Development Goals. Researched and wrote background materials for speeches, papers, and research proposals focused on the effectiveness of international aid and other sources of development finance.

United States Agency for International Developments (USAID) Kigali, Rwanda
Agriculture and Rural Enterprise Development Team Intern 2004

Helped USAID partners improve data collection and reporting techniques. Designed a strategy for impact evaluation of USAID economic growth projects.

CORE COMPETENCIES

- Client & Project Management
- Cost Benefit Analysis
- Cost Effectiveness Analysis
- Data Analytics
- Development Economics
- Econometric Analysis & Forecasting
- Economic Impact Analysis
- Economic Modeling
- Energy & Environmental Policy
- Logic Modeling
- Mobile Research (i.e. crowdsourcing research)
- Policy Development
- Program Evaluation & Independent Monitoring
- Regulatory & Policy Impact Analysis
- Strategic Planning
- Scenario Planning & Analysis
- Survey Design & Implementation